Tide x Tide is a design studio based between Delhi, Pondicherry and Havelock Island. Being contextual, playful, relevant and responsible is where we come from when dealing with projects, whether they're branding, packaging, illustration, digital and more.

Come in, take off your shoes. We'd love to listen to your idea.

We get it - something we've designed really fits the brief you're working with. It couldn't be more in place. We ask you to ask yourself whether you really need to rip it off and place it on your artboard. Instead, how about you take inspiration and draw on your own creativity (yes, you have it, just need to reach for it) or if you like, give us a call to discuss your project, maybe we can give you some ideas?
